

SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST

MASTER OF DESIGN AND INNOVATION AND RESEARCH STUDY PROGRAMAS IED

Design as added value to the strategic management of companies.

The best world leaders have a common feature: they have been innovative.

What does it really mean to be a designer in the 21st century? A designer is a professional who is able to transform abstract ideas, turn them into reality and make life easier for people, or for users of a product or service. A designer is an experience enhancer.

One critical piece that is often lacking in companies is education in innovation. Many of today's business executives received their education before innovation became an important part of the curriculum.

The mentality is changing. By introducing more innovative programmes, a new generation of CEOs is being created for whom innovation and design are key pieces in company leadership.

The Masters of Design and Innovation at IED Madrid encourage and transmit to students the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to face the new economic, social and business paradigms of the 21st century.

These high-performance programmes are based on a very practical methodology, which is geared towards the development of projects in partnership with important companies or organisations, as well as a personal final project of the master's degree; talks by professionals, practical seminars and trips inside and outside Spain.

There are 2 scholarships and they cover 50% of total Course Fee. The master's degrees for which we are announcing the competition for scholarships (starting in January 2021) are:

- Master of Design and Innovation (IED Madrid - 2 scholarships)

With these scholarships, IED Spain aims to reward talent and facilitate access to these high-level programmes for deserving individuals on the basis of their CV and portfolio.

The period for taking part ends at 6 PM Spain time (GMT +1) on 31 May 2020.

The name of the winners will be published on 12 June 2020 on the IED Madrid website www.iedmadrid.com (winners will also be contacted in person by the admissions department at each centre).

PARTICIPANTS

The competition is open to interested parties of any nationality, of legal age, who have a bachelor's degree or a minimum of at least two years' experience.

RULES OF THE COMPETITION

Participants must complete the competition participation form and attach their curriculum vitae, cover letter and portfolio (this portfolio may be an extract from their previous professional work, projects in which they have participated, innovative ideas, etc., for those who do not have an academic or professional profile from the world of design).

Each candidate may only enter for one competition for one single master's degree. Candidates that apply for a scholarship for more than one master's degree will be disqualified.

The scholarships will be awarded on the basis of the documentation received and the candidate's potential for development. For this purpose, an ad hoc panel of experts will be created for this scholarship competition.

The panel will be made up of professionals from IED Madrid. This panel will assess: the candidate's portfolio (quality of the work, presentation, etc.), his/her curriculum vitae, the cover letter and his/her personal skills.

For this purpose, the following weighting criteria are established:

60% of the value will be given to the portfolio.

40% to the cover letter and personal interview in which the candidate will have to defend the work presented and in which his/her personal concerns and communication skills will also be assessed. Pre-selected applicants will be contacted in order to conduct this interview in person, by telephone or by Skype depending on their place of residence or availability.
